STAFF FROM THE COLLEGE OF THE HOLY CROSS AT THE LEÓN CAMPUS

Several staff members from the College of the Holy Cross (Massachusetts, USA) visited the Universidad de León this March, thus strengthening the bonds of an agreement that has been in place for over 20 years.

During this time around 200 students from the College of the Holy Cross have had the opportunity to study at the Universidad de León. The programme these students come under includes not only an academic component but also a constant cultural immersion with the local and Spanish society. In addition, accommodation is provided in host families for the duration of their stay.

For its part, Holy Cross offers the Universidad de León one or more openings each year for the position of assistant professor of foreign language conversation, a stay that takes place on the campus of the American institution.

The selection is made by the professors of the College of the Holy Cross themselves, who usually interview via video-conference the candidates who they consider to have the desired profile.

New lines of collaboration have been discussed during this visit.

VI Research Pitch Competition (for doctoral students and researchers)

The Compostela Group of Universities (GCU) launched the 6th Call for its Research Pitch Competition in November 2021, inviting doctoral students and researchers from the higher education institutions associated with the network to participate. Those who wish to submit their application should do so through the electronic form available on the page of this activity. They will also find the terms and conditions of the call, which specify the documentation to be submitted for registration and information about the requirements to be met by their video presentations.

Application deadline: April 8th 2022.

I-WEEK AT ULE

The Universidad de León is already working on a new edition of its International Week.

After two years of not being able to fully carry out the International Week, the Vice-rectorate for Internationalisation is preparing a programme for the University Community to enjoy and benefit from an event full of activities in the international field. The i-week will focus on topics such as new mobility projects within the Erasmus Programme or subjects such as Production and Responsible Consumption, the backbone of EURECA-PRO, the Alliance of European Universities that the Universidad de León is a member of. The dates for this event are May 2nd to 6th.

More information and registration form coming soon.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECTS OFFICE

VIRTUAL EXCHANGES FOR TEACHERS: VALIANT PROJECT

The Valiant Project of virtual exchanges for pre-school and primary school teachers continues to recruit volunteers seeking new experiences of multinational interaction between European teachers. This is an excellent opportunity to incorporate an international virtual component in teaching, which aims to bring together teachers from more isolated environments and who do not have access to nearby forums for discussion and updating of methods.

JEAN MONNET SESSIONS (ATJUE)

The Jean Monnet Module project ATJUE (ADVANCING FAIR TRANSITIONS IN THE EUROPEAN UNION: DECENT WORK AS A DRIVE FOR CHANGE) continues its sessions every Thursday to raise awareness of the basic principles on which the construction of Community Social Law is based and to disseminate the current lines of the European Union's social policies. You can find the programme of the activity here.

EURECA-PRO

We, the 41 Alliances of European Universities, representing about 300 European Higher Education institutions, stand together and send our strongest solidarity to the Ukrainian people after the Russian Government's attack. We also strongly condemn the bombardment of Kharkiv National University. Our Alliances have been built on a shared vision of a welcoming and peaceful Europe: we urge all stakeholders to restore peace, democracy and respect of human rights in Ukraine.

Many of our Alliances have partners located in the Ukraine's region: they have started to host Ukrainian refugees, including members of Ukrainian academic community. In solidarity, other Alliances' partners are setting up mechanisms to support them (fund raising, supply of basic goods, scholarships, etc.).

True to the European values of human dignity, freedom, democracy, equality, rule of law, and human rights, our Alliances will remain inclusive to all students and academics and will continue to provide support to all who are affected by this tragic situation.
